

DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT SENATORIAL CONVENTION

Convened at 2 O'clock at Idlewild Casino---Full Representation of all Counties---No Nomination up Until 3:50 O'clock---Lively Contest Still On.

The Democratic Senatorial convention of the Fifteenth-Sixteenth district, composed of the counties of Delaware, Licking, Muskingum and Perry, was held in this city Tuesday for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for State Senator.

Unusual interest was taken in the event all over the district, and the result was that every county in the district was largely represented, the basis of representation being one delegate for every 100 votes cast for Hon. John M. Patton for governor in 1905, and an additional delegate for 50 or more votes so cast. Upon this basis the several counties in the district were entitled to the following number of delegates: Delaware 34; Licking, 65; Muskingum, 63, and Perry, 37, making a total of 199 delegates and necessary to a choice, 100 votes.

At an early hour Tuesday morning the delegations from the various counties of the district began arriving and by 10 o'clock all were in the city and the hustling began. It was understood from the first that Muskingum county had three candidates in the persons of Messrs. W. J. Mason, C. S. Hoskinson and J. B. Smith, while Licking county had two candidates in the field, W. A. Alsdorf of Johnstown, and F. E. Slabaugh of Hebron. R. W. Small was the candidate of Perry county, while Delaware was shy.

The delegations from the different counties held their caucuses at 11 o'clock as follows: Licking county, court room; Muskingum county, Probate court room; Delaware county, jury room, and Perry county, county clerk's office.

At the caucus of the Licking delegation Mr. Judson Rees was elected temporary chairman, and Mr. Sylvester Leamon, temporary secretary.

Upon the roll call a number of vacancies were filled in the various townships and precincts, after which the chair appointed a committee of five to locate where any further vacancies existed. The committee consisted of J. D. Tewell, J. R. Fitzgibbon, Mr. Baker of Johnstown, Mr. Loughman and Mr. Green, and was instructed to report immediately upon the convening of the convention at Idlewild Park.

The Licking delegation then selected the following as its permanent officers:

Chairman, Harry Russell.
Secretary, Judson Rees.

The various committees were then selected as follows:

Rules and order of business, J. R. Fitzgibbon.
Resolutions, Roderic Jones.
Permanent organization, John P. Sullivan.
Credentials, Daniel Gormley.

J. J. Hill was unanimously selected as the senatorial committeeman from Licking county.

At 2 o'clock the convention was called to order in the beautiful theater at Idlewild Park, which was profusely decorated with the Stars and Stripes and portraits of the Democratic candidates, Bryan and Harmon, and the different districts were designated with the county standards.

J. Howard Jones, senatorial committeeman from Licking county, called the convention to order.

W. E. Haas of Delaware, was named as temporary chairman, and P. A. Carr of Muskingum county, as temporary secretary.

On motion which was put before the convention, both were made permanent officers.

The secretary called the roll of counties for committeemen for credentials, permanent organization, rules and order of business, resolutions, and senatorial committees after which the convention adjourned for 15 minutes to allow the different committees time in which to make their reports.

After the 15 minutes' recess the committee on resolutions was called upon and reported as follows:

Report of Committee on Resolutions.

Resolved, by the Democrats of the 15th-16th Senatorial District in convention assembled that we hereby reaffirm and endorse the platform of principles adopted at the Democratic convention, and we endorse and pledge our support to that party's leader, nominated by that convention, William Jennings Bryan.

That we endorse and pledge our hearty and enthusiastic support to the candidacy of the Hon. Judson Harmon for governor, and pledge our support to all the candidates associated with him on the state Democratic ticket.

That we pledge the support of all the delegates in this convention to

W. A. ALSDORF,
Of Johnstown, also a candidate from Licking County.

GIGANTIC PARADES MARK CELEBRATION OF LABOR'S NATIONAL GALA DAY

SAMUEL GOMPERS
President of the American Federation of Labor

The celebration of Labor Day was one of the most extensive in the history of the holiday. In New York the unions arranged for a gigantic parade, with a review in Madison square. In Chicago the parade was more extensive than usual.

STORY Of Attack Upon the President Found Groundless

SHOT FIRED AT TARGET

No Attempt at Assassination Was Made Upon Executive

Crank Who Attempted to Gain Interview With Pres. Roosevelt Placed Under Arrest.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 5.—Upon the departure for New York today Major Wadsworth, friend of President Roosevelt, who was riding with him last Saturday, the bottom was knocked out of the story that an attempt had been made to assassinate the President.

Before leaving, Major Wadsworth declared that while a shot was fired near the road along which he and the President were riding, it was not directed at either of them but was fired by some target practitioner on the farm of W. Emile Roosevelt, the President's cousin.

This positive statement coupled with an investigation made at Minola of a man suspected of the shooting, which proved later to be quite harmless, completely upset the theory of attempted assassination which had been given considerable credence, owing to the mystery thrown about it by secret service men in their efforts to protect the President from annoyance.

The story took its shape from the arrest yesterday of John Coughlin, a crank, who attempted to gain an interview with the President.

HOW LABOR DAY WAS CELEBRATED AT PITTSBURG

Pittsburg, Sept. 8.—Never in the history of organized labor has Labor Day been so generally observed in the Pittsburgh district. Addresses were delivered by T. V. Powderly, the former chief of the Knights of Labor; Frank T. Hawley, Grand Master of the Switchmen's Union of America, and Frank L. Mulholland, chief counsel of the International Association of Machinists; John J. Lentz, of Columbus, Ohio, and P. H. Morrissey, Grand Master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Mr. Lentz in the course of his address, said:

"If anyone see fit to criticize the trend of the thought of the reformers of this age it may not be unfair to him to suggest that the Pharisees and hypocrites did not go with Judas and commit suicide in the days of the Nazarene teacher, but they continued to propagate and multiply even to this day. You and I live in a republic dedicated to the one proposition of equality, and yet we see today not one man, but a million men stretching forth their withered hands asking for bread, or, rather, the opportunity to earn bread, yet a heartless greedy money-worshipping generation gives them a stone and closes its pharisaical eyes and stops with cotton its hypocritical ears to the pleading of this army of a million unemployed."

FOREST FIRES

DESTROY SNOWBALL AND BURN OVER AREA OF TWENTY-FIVE MILES.

The Fires Are Still a Serious Menace and Inhabitants are Forced to Flee for Safety.

Duluth, Sept. 8.—After destroying the town of Snowball and burning over a territory of 25 miles, the forest fires died down again today. The fact that the renewal of the fires resulted from only a slight breeze, shows that they are still serious menace. Snowball is a suburb of Hibbing and its inhabitants had no difficulty in escaping to that town.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO LABOR

Enthusiasm Unbounded for the Presidential Candidate

Mr. Bryan Makes Three Speeches and Talks on the Abuse of Injunctions in Labor Disputes.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Organized labor yesterday paid a tribute to William J. Bryan. Although it was Labor day, it soon became manifest that the workers had surrendered their privilege and made it Bryan day. Within an hour after his arrival in the city the Democratic candidate for President, standing on the balcony of the Auditorium hotel, received the plaudits of thousands of toilers as they marched by in the monster labor parade. The air was rent with cheers and the enthusiasm was unbounded. Not infrequently the marchers halted before the Presidential candidate, doffed their caps and gave three cheers "for our next President." Many familiarly addressed him as "Bill" and "William."

A mighty shout went up when he reached up his hands and caught a cigarmaker's union badge, which one of that body threw to him from the street.

The pleasure which the ovation afforded Mr. Bryan was undisguised. He smiled continuously, bowed and clapped his hands, always giving the women in the parade an equal share of applause. So insistent for a speech was the crowd in front of the hotel that Mr. Bryan yielded. In the course of a brief address he paid a tribute to labor and said he believed in the observance of Labor Day, because he thought "we all ought to strive to assist in dignifying in every possible way the honest toil upon which our nation properly rests."

But this was only one feature of the visit of the Democratic candidate. Following the parade he was whisked away in an automobile to the Waukegan club in company with and followed by a mass of labor leaders. There luncheon was served and he made a short speech. Luncheon concluded, Mr. Bryan was conducted to Forest park, several miles away, where he was scheduled to deliver a Labor day address.

There was a multitude awaiting his coming. As he neared the park the word was passed around and he got another ovation as he came in sight. So eager was the crowd to catch a glimpse of and hear him that they got beyond the control of the police, who were fairly swept off their feet. Mr. Bryan himself had to struggle to make headway to the pavilion.

Without any preliminaries, President John Fitzpatrick of the Chicago Federation of Labor introduced Mr. Bryan, who, because of the cheers he received, stood for several minutes at the front of the pavilion before he began his speech on the abuse of the injunction in labor disputes. The speech was practically duplicated at Brand's park an hour afterward, where the electrical workers were holding forth.

From the moment the presidential candidate arrived until he retired for the night he was in charge of the labor leaders.

The first cheers he received were at the railroad station, where he was met by Colonel John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms, members of the Democratic national committee and representatives of labor organizations. Every move of Mr. Bryan from the station until he entered the hotel, several blocks distant, was recorded by a moving picture machine, operated from an automobile which preceded the Bryan carriage. The pictures, it is understood, will be used in the campaign in connection with the phonographic records of Mr. Bryan's speeches.

After the conference today the national committee decided to begin at once the organization of a national league of Bryan and Kern Democratic clubs. Nathan Evans of New York, has been selected as president, with G. E. Gaultier of St. Louis as his assistant and secretary.

LIGHTS

Should Be Displayed at Approaches Leading to Excavations on Hudson Avenue.

The waterworks construction company that is doing the work on Hudson avenue, are negligent about protecting the approaches from the alleys that run from Clinton street to the open ditch. For several nights no lights have been placed in front of the alleys that run from Clinton street, and anyone not knowing the situation is liable to drive or walk into a five-foot excavation. For the protection of the public, each night, red lights should be placed not only along the ditch, but at the intersections of each alley that runs from Clinton street. For several days, there has been no ropes stretched to indicate that the right-of-way is closed. People have driven off Clinton to Hudson only to have to turn around, or maybe back out for the distance. The authorities and waterworks construction employees have been notified of this dereliction, but Monday night the ditch was still left exposed.

LABOR OMNIA VINCIT.

Labor Day naturally turns attention to labor's cause. Labor's motto, "Labor Omnia Vincit" means labor conquers all things.

Mr. Voris has already begun to boast about how the Taft campaign managers used the labor organizations of Youngstown in the Republican campaign opening last Saturday.

This year labor must decide whether it will "Omnia Vincit" the father of "Government by injunction," or whether the great injunctive will "Omnia Vincit" labor.

The immense demonstration in behalf of William J. Bryan at the Labor Day celebration at Chicago on Monday, shows clearly that genuine labor sentiment is on the side of their friend and defender as against the "Government by injunction" candidate, William H. Taft.

The same sentiment was strongly in evidence at the Labor day celebrations in all the other great cities and industrial centers on Monday. If the workmen had cast their ballots at these great demonstrations, it is plain that the vote would have easily stood 99 to 1 in favor of Bryan.

WITHOUT EXCEPTION

By his unqualified endorsement of all the candidates on the ticket with him without exception, in his Youngstown speech, Governor Harris has brought himself down to the level of Green, Fullington, Denman, Shauk, Price, Thompson and Kirtley, all of whom have been openly repudiated by Republican papers since the convention of the Cox-Gilbert-Brown-Bieser-Voris' clans.

Governor Harris cannot lay the charge of "personal abuse" or "sensational insinuations" at the door of Democratic papers which have said nothing and can say nothing more emphatic against Republican candidates than has been said by Republican editors of Ohio.

The Governor must answer to such Republican papers as the Cleveland Leader, Toledo Blade, Sandusky Register, Medina Gazette, Monroe Courier, Mansfield News, Paulding Republican, Middletown Journal, McConellsville Herald, Galia Times and others, that could be mentioned, for endorsing his associate candidates and the state treasury graft without exception.

Surely the Governor cannot face the public and say that the charges made in those papers against some of his associate candidates are "foul or false."

DUPONT'S DUAL POSITION LINES UP THE TRUSTS

T Coleman Du Pont has the dual position of head of the Powder Trust and chief of the national Republican speakers' bureau. This means that THE TRUSTS ARE ALL LINED UP FOR TAFT AND IT MEANS NOTHING ELSE.

It is the Congress that makes the laws. The President can recommend legislation he approves, and veto legislation he disapproves, but the Congress has the last say. It can overrule his veto. For that reason William Jennings Bryan takes the strong stand he does that the reforms he advocates must come by legislation, and not by the exercise of arbitrary power by the President of the United States. If the people are allowed to rule all abuses in the government can be eradicated and the exercise of imperialistic power at the head of the Federal government may prove to be a greater evil than those sought to be remedied.

The young man who wants a chance to distinguish himself in this world should vote for Bryan. There isn't much individuality left when "Trusts are in the saddle."

A ROW AMONG REPUBLICANS IS LIQUOR AGITATION

In his letter regarding temperance agitation in this campaign, Judge Harmon the Democratic candidate for Governor carries out the contention that the agitation of the temperance question is a row entirely within the Republican party—a controversy between Governor Harris and the so-called liberal Republicans. He discusses the fact that the Democratic platform is silent on the temperance question and for that reason he says the Democratic candidates are bound not to import into the campaign any question of temperance.

It is the same way everywhere. Labor organizations are for Bryan and Kern. The Rocky Mountain News says that President Hally of the Colorado Federation of Labor and his associates are making an active fight for Bryan and the Democratic platform. They were endorsed by the Federation and Mr. Hally was re-elected president.

ROBERTS SEES A GHOST

Ellis H. L. Roberts, former treasurer of the United States treasury department, has called up the ghost of what is called the bank guaranty law of 90 years ago, as a warning against guaranty of bank deposits now.

Mr. Roberts is unfortunate in his comparison. That so called guaranty law of 90 years ago, although it covered deposits, was chiefly intended to guarantee the bank's circulation in days of wild cat banking.

As Mr. Roberts states, the result was inflation of the circulation and, as new banks could not share in the fund, the plan proved a failure.

But the guaranty law proposed today is to protect deposits, not wild cat circulation. Under its operations no banker will oppose inflation of deposits.

DIED ON THE BATTLEFIELD

Every Democrat in the United States owes a tribute of gratitude to Alexander Troup, owner and editor of the New Haven Union, and one of the Democratic giants of New England.

Mr. Bryan had no more loyal friend on earth and no more loyal supporter in 1896 and throughout his entire career as the National standard-bearer of Democracy. Partisan prejudice ran so high in Connecticut in 1896 that merchants withdrew their advertising support and subscribers refused longer to read his paper. Through it all he stood firm as flint. Time vindicated him, as it did Mr. Bryan, and after the clouds of partisan rancor blew over, old friends flocked back to his support and his paper came triumphant through the gale until now it is one of the most influential Democratic papers in the East.

Mr. Troup yielded up his life in the thick of the fight this year for the restoration of the government to the people, and the nation has lost one of its noblest men.

Republican politicians are still busy trying to shirk responsibility for the present industrial depression. The task, though, is an impossible one. After, for years claiming all the credit for the prosperity of the people, who were really prosperous in spite of the blighting effects of a Dingley tariff and the wasteful extravagance of Republican congresses, they now find themselves in an exceedingly uncomfortable position. For be it remembered, this is not a "Democratic panic" but is strictly of Republican origin. It is conservatively estimated that there are not less than 2,000,000 men out of employment today in the United States.

Nearly all the members of Roosevelt's Cabinet are in the party field making stump speeches, and the rest are preparing to follow them. Will they demand an addition to their salaries for this extra labor, or will they personally compensate themselves in some other way?

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS

ORGANIZE BRYAN LEAGUE OF OHIO, AND WILL TAKE ACTIVE PART IN CAMPAIGN.

Democratic Candidate For Secretary of State Addresses Enthusiastic Meeting of "Drummers."

Columbus, O., Sept. 8.—Traveling men of Ohio are organizing for Bryan.

Saturday night, in the assembly room of the Neil House, about thirty traveling men met and organized the Traveling Men's Bryan League of Ohio, an organization that is to have a vice president in every county and membership in every place where traveling men reside.

No class of citizens has been affected to a greater extent by panicky times than the traveling men. They feel the conditions and their observation leads them to note the causes. Hence the traveling men are for Bryan.

J. H. Newman, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, made an address to the assembled "drummers," in which he pointed out some of the causes of conditions that confront the travelers. Under Republican rule, Mr. Newman said, the trusts have grown so big that they have absorbed the smaller concerns. Every concern that is absorbed had men representing it on the road. These men are thrown out of employment. Factories are throttled by the big concern and put out of business. With it go the traveling men who represented it. They must go out and seek other positions with a restricted opportunity to find them. Mr. Newman called attention to the glucose industry as an example. This industry was represented in Tippecanoe City by a number of traveling men. When the trust absorbed it and shut it down the travelers lost their positions as well as the men in the factory.

"There have been at least five panics in fifteen years," said Mr. Newman. "We traveling men have noticed them. I noticed them when I was on the road. They were not called panics. They were smoothed over as financial furies. But they were panics just the same. A few men hold the wealth in this country and manufacture panics when they choose."

"When Bryan is elected there is one factory that will close, we hope, for all time. That factory will be the panic factory and we promise it will never open again."

Garmen Staley, a traveling man, made a speech in which he called attention to conditions and pointed the remedy. He urged all traveling men to support the Democratic candidates.

Benton Childers was elected president of the organization, Jackson S. Golden, secretary, and John P. Givens, treasurer. An executive committee will be appointed at the next meeting.

BUCKEYE LAKE IS CLOSED FOR SUMMER SEASON

Management Pleased With Patronage
—Many Improvements Will be Made Next Year.

With the big Labor Day crowd at Buckeye Lake park, this popular resort formally closed one of the most successful seasons in its history, and the management has expressed itself as being much gratified with the class of patrons visiting the resort this summer.

Many of the cottagers have left for their regular homes in Newark and Columbus, and other cities, but there are still a few left about the lake fishing and hunting. The concessions have all been closed, and Mr. Harvey Marple, the principal concessionaire, is now completing arrangements to go to Mexico, where he has secured a number of the concessions in Luna park, City of Mexico, for the winter.

Mr. Louis Meyer, who will also spend the winter in Mexico, will remain at the park for some few days, closing up the resort business and getting the grounds in readiness for the winter. Next season's opening will witness a large number of telling improvements on the grounds, which will continue to give growth to the popularity of the lake and its many attractions.

The water is being lowered from the reservoir and the work of clearing will be begun soon. There are still many stumps about the lake and boats are required to travel within strict bounds in order to avoid them. A great number of these will be removed this fall and it is expected that next summer will witness practically a clear waterway to and from any point on the lake, by any route desirable.

Manager Harris and his party will leave at 5:40 Thursday evening on their five days' journey to Mexico City.

The idea of giving money to assist the public library has no doubt, come to many persons, who have been waiting for some one to ask them. Now, the proper thing to do is to send your check or money to the librarian or to the trustees, who are in need of money now. Bring or send the money in—it will be greatly appreciated. 3t

AMUSEMENTS

THE PRESS AGENT SAYS:

At the Auditorium theater on Wednesday, September 9th, marks the eleventh annual appearance of John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels in this city. The organization is a large one and comprises the foremost artists in the minstrel sphere and the world of novelties.

Chas. Gano is the principal comedian of the company, and we are pleased to note that as a star he shines more brilliantly than ever. He is the prince of good fellows and possibly has more friends than any comedian on the minstrel stage. As a performer he is brilliant, refined and entertaining, bears the reputation and distinction of being an end man who is free from vulgarity, has a splendid voice, is graceful in action; in short, we consider him one of the most artistic black face comedians now before the public.

Every seat was sold last night at the Auditorium theater. The occasion for the gathering was the novel attraction, "The Dramatone" company, which will be here every afternoon and evening this week except Wednesday, September 9th, the date of John W. Vogel Big City Minstrels. Among the pictures being produced is the great Pathe sensation, "Madame's Fancies." The Auditorium band and orchestra, conducted by Charles H. Smith, commenced its regular engagement for the season Monday afternoon, at the Auditorium. Mr. Smith has secured the services of some of the best musical talent in the country, and will play only the latest music. The band will give a nightly concert in front of the Auditorium from 7 to 7:30.

THE ORPHIUM.

The Kelley sisters, singers and dancers, aged 6 and 8 years, won the hearts of the Orphium patrons at the opening performance at that theater, Monday afternoon. In spite of the big celebration at other places, the Orphium opened to a good business.

Harry and Anna Ladell are bound to be a good drawing attraction at the little play house this week, as their turn in hand balancing and acrobatic tricks is a good one all through. The biggest bunch of fun for such a small man, is to be found in Mr. John Byrnes, humorist. Mr. Byrnes gives an exceedingly funny act that consists of telling stories we haven't heard and telling them in a manner amusing. His turn is original and seems to be well taken here.

Rankin and Leslie close the show with a novelty musical act that is good. The male member of this team recently closed an engagement as saxophone soloist of Brooks' Marine band in Chicago. His part of the act is especially good, and he is ably assisted by his partner.

Mr. I. B. Warthen, who is singing the illustrated songs this week, was well received by Monday's audiences and promises to make good.

Prof. Parve, formerly of the Zanesville Sun & Murray house, is musical director at the Orphium for the season.

REV. T. C. BIDELE

Will Succeed Rev. Sager Tryon as Pastor of United Brethren Church.

Rev. Sager Tryon left Tuesday afternoon for Barborton to attend the East Ohio Conference of the United Brethren churches. Rev. T. C. Bidell of Bremen, will succeed Rev. Mr. Tryon as pastor of the United Brethren congregation of this city.

It was the desire of the congregation, and they so instructed the delegates to the recent conference to have the reverend gentleman retained, but as Mr. Tryon is a member of the East Ohio Conference and the church in this city is a member of the Southeast Ohio Conference, it would have been necessary for him to transfer had he been continued here, and he did not care to make the change at this time.

He has proved very efficient, has been a hard worker and has the best wishes of his congregation in the new field of labor to which he will be assigned in the East Ohio Conference.

SCHEDULE

For Installing Post-Graduate Course in High School is Submitted at Board Meeting.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Education was held Monday night, all the members being present. After the regular routine business had been transacted, the matter of installing gas burners under the boilers in the High school and the North Fourth street school building was taken up, and after considerable discussion it was referred to the building committee with power to act. The matter of furnishing shades for the windows of the High school and the North Fourth street building was referred to the supply committee.

Miss Edna Henderson, a teacher in the Central school presented a request for a leave of absence for one year, and the leave was granted her.

The resignation of Miss Helen Felger, teacher of English in the High

SCIATICA LOSES ITS TERRORS

This Disease Is a Form of Neuralgia and Is Cured by the Remedy That Cures Other Forms.

Sciatica is neuralgia of the sciatic nerve and the treatment should be the same as for other forms of neuralgia. Lack of blood is almost always associated with neuralgia. Build up the blood, the impoverished nerves are fed and the neuralgia pains disappear. Absolute rest is the best aid to proper medical treatment.

So many severe cases of sciatica have been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that every sufferer is justified in giving the treatment a thorough trial. A recent cure is that of Mr. L. H. Smith, a farmer, of Bolivar, Ohio, who says:

"I think the sciatica in my case was caused by a heavy fall on my left side. I kept on working after the injury which had left my leg and hip very sore. The pains were severe and cutting and were worse whenever I climbed up and down stairs as I had to do every evening for I was employed as a night watchman at that time. The pains extended down to my foot and were constant unless I sat down and placed my leg out straight. Often I was forced to use crutches. The pains were so severe that I could not get more than two and one-half hours' sleep at a time.

"The doctor's medicine did not agree with my stomach and did not help me. I was under the care of different doctors for eight or ten months and then gave them up and started to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I experienced relief sooner than I had hoped for and took several boxes of the pills. I am now in good health, the pains have entirely left me and I can use my leg without the slightest pain. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have no equal and recommend them hoping I may be the cause of some sufferer getting relief."

If you have sciatica, or sciatic rheumatism, and the treatment you have taken proved of no benefit, it is time that you tried the remedy that has cured so many stubborn cases—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

These pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

school for the past two years, was received by the board and accepted.

The nomination of Miss Columbia Thompson of Columbus, to succeed Miss Felger, was made by Supt. Simkins and was confirmed by the board. Miss Thompson is a graduate of O. S. U. and has had experience as a school teacher.

A schedule was then submitted by Supt. Simkins for the installing of a post-graduate course in the High school, for the benefit of the graduates who expect to become teachers. No action was taken on this by the board, and it was carried over until their next meeting, September 21. Upon motion the board then adjourned.

FIRE ESCAPE

Test at Central School Very Satisfactory—Children Tested the New Idea.

From the point of view of the children who were the "examples" in a fire escape test at the Central building this morning, the escape is a decided success and a whole lot better than the iron steps in general use. The escape is made of canvas, and when a person is in it the resemblance to a huge hammock is striking.

It is either clamped or tied in the room from which the children are to leave, while the other end is held on the ground. The test this morning was made from the second story of the building, and the children who tested it had the time of their lives sliding down to the ground.

It is manufactured by the Safety Fire Escape Co., of Britt, Iowa, and was demonstrated by Messrs. Sturgeon and Overbaugh. The board of education will take action in the matter at their next regular meeting.

JUDGE TAFT

SPOKE IN SANDUSKY THIS MORNING, DELIVERING TWO ADDRESSES.

Under Close Police Guard as Authorities Were Frightened at Reported Attempt on President's Life

Sandusky, O., Sept. 8.—Judge Taft delivered two addresses here today prior to his departure this afternoon for Cincinnati. He is scheduled for eight back platform speeches en route. Taft's first speech was at the Soldiers' Home early today when he addressed 1,000 veterans. He did not refer to politics, but complimented the veterans on their service to the country. At 4:30, he addressed a large audience at the opera house.

Judge Taft has begun under close police guard while in the city. The story of the attempt on the life of President Roosevelt, although denied later, frightened the local police and the residence where Taft slept last night was closely guarded.

At the opera house Taft said that if elected, he "promised to devote his energy to carrying out the pledges made by Roosevelt." This promise brought forth cheers. Congressman Keifer spoke on the tariff, and former Governor Herrick on bank deposit guaranty.

Taft also pledged himself if elected president, to undertake the preventing of over issue of stocks and bonds of interstate railways. This he declared was logical and part of the Roosevelt policies.

Belief that the disease was incurable is believed to have caused the suicide.

PROMINENT PIONEER

CHRISTOPHER R. STARK PASSES AWAY AT HIS HOME WEST OF GRANVILLE.

Was One of Licking County's Most Respected Residents—One of Denison's First Students.

Granville, O., Sept. 8.—Mr. Christopher R. Stark, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of Granville township, died at his home two miles west of Granville on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after an illness of some time with the ailments incident to advanced age, he being in the 83d year at the time of his death.

He is survived by two sons, Joshua, who lives at home, and William, who lives on the home farm.

Christopher R. Stark was the second child of Joshua and Silence Rose Stark. He was married to Miss Mary Partridge of Granville, March 12, 1860. Mr. Stark was one of the first students of Granville college, being a pupil of Professor John Pratt, in the old Baptist church edifice, where the first nucleus was formed in the fall of 1831. He attended college for some five or six years. In the spring of 1849 Mr. Stark led a company of 32 men across the plains to California.

The company, of which Mr. Stark was the president and commissary, was organized in Granville, the outfit being shipped to St. Louis by rail and boat and from that point up the Mississippi to Independence, where oxen were procured and the party started for the land of golden promise, being five months on the road. They suffered many hardships and even perils on the way, although they all reached their destination without any depletion by death or serious casualties. As far as known Mr. Stark is the last survivor of the expedition. After a residence of nine years in California, in which Mr. Stark met with great success in business, he returned to Ohio arriving in July, 1858. He then settled on the homestead west of Granville, which has been his residence ever since. Mr. Stark for a number of years was engaged in raising fine stock, and upon a number of occasions at the county and state fairs exhibited specimens of very choice Durhams. For a number of years he was a member of the Granville Farmers' club and his speeches in that body were of few words but always to the point.

The Molders added another to their string of defeats by dropping the morning game, Labor Day, to the Marion crowd by the score of 3 to 1, in one of the fastest contests ever seen in the local ball yard. The game went just an hour and twenty minutes, and while fast, yet it was painfully uninteresting at times and the interest of the spectators lagged.

The local squad arrived Sunday night from Lima where they were handed three straight defeats, the one Sunday being the worst whalloping they have stacked up against this season. The Marion team came Monday morning after a hard trip from Portsmouth where they lost the majority of their games to the Shoemakers, and for this reason both teams were out for blood.

The playing, however, proved to be anything but brisk, and some of the plays that were made thoroughly disgusted the fans. Both games were marred by the work of Umpire Hart, who handed out poor decisions in the most impartial manner. The day was a pleasant one for base ball, and at both the morning and the afternoon session the attendance was good, although not up to last year.

Boh Moore and Webb pitched good ball and each had nine strikeouts to their credit although Webb escaped the heavy hitting that Moore drew in the first of the series. Neither twirler walked a man and in critical places both were effective. Gygil never played better ball than he did in both games, and several seemingly impossible chances were pulled in by him.

For the Marion squad Wolfe played a remarkable game at short, and during the nine frames he handled nine chances without an error. He did nothing with the stick however, but his fast fielding was clever though some of the chances were hard ones.

FIRST GAME.
The Eells delegation started off with a vim, and it looked as though they would put the contest in their coffers and clump the lid on it, for in the second inning they rushed Gygil, who connected for two bags, across the plate with lightning speed. Smith was the one that turned the trick, and he did it with a slow grinder, that rolled in a tantalizing manner around the feet of the infielders who tried to pick it up, and before they did get their hands on the globe to hold it, Smith was standing smiling on first.

He worked around to third on Wratten's hit, but in trying to make the home sack he was thrown out by Wolfe when the ball was thrown to him by Luskey in the attempt to get Wratten who was pilfering the second sack. Winters fled out to Farrell, and Williams was safe on Tate's error, although the misplay proved costly for Wratten for he was thrown out at home in trying to take advantage of it.

LaRue made the first count for the Diggers when he reached on a hit. Luskey, meanwhile outwaded, was there with the wand, and he reached one that landed him on third and sent LaRue home. When Williams let one get past him, the crowd set up a groan, to which accompaniment Luskey trotted home.

The Diggers counted again in the sixth when O'Day leaped against one that Smith entirely misjudged and the ball passed high over his head to take a resounding whack against the boards of the deep center fence. Smith shoved on the speed lever and tried to relay the ball into the plate, but his misjudgment was costly and O'Day circled the bases. The score:

AFTERNOON GAME.
The afternoon game went through the frames in just five minutes less time than the first game did, and the crowd saw some good ball, though at the same time they saw some that was decidedly pink in hue, and showed lack of head work on the part of the Molders. Their misplays were not costly enough to lose the game, and the interest in the game was not entirely lost.

The one error of the day made by the Molders happened in the second section of the sport when Winters dropped Luskey's fly in the sixth inning. Through the falling of the sphere from Winters' hands the Diggers were enabled to get the one run across that prevented Webb handing them a shutout. Luskey worked hard to this end, but was forced to be satisfied with pitching a nice game and opposed to him on the mound was "Scratch" McGuire, who claims he is a descendant of some old king that once ruled Germany, or rather Ireland. "Scratch" got away from the tape in bad shape, but later he settled down in the harness and when he came under the wire he was traveling at a good gait. He didn't seem to have much other than a good disposition, but he did manage to strike out four Newark batsmen. He was also hit hard, but by more luck than good management he kept the drives and the bingles were separated, and only two runs were gathered from his delivery.

Farrell was the bright shining light in the outfield and five hard chances were hauled in by him, to the tunes of "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark," and some other selections that were dished up by a band in Idlewild park, engaged for the "doings" over there in "Cap" Hayes' domain.

With two out in the second inning, the first of the Newark runs were sent across the plate. Wratten, after fouling balls until McGuire got tired, met a single until McGuire reached first. He watched his chance and stole second, as most of the runners did on Luskey, and when Winters slammed a three sacker out, Wats scampered home. The second count was made by the locals in the fourth inning. Abbott slapped a three baser down the right foul line and scored when Gygil also landed on the descendant of the kings for a triple. He was thrown out at the plate though and with Smith and Wratten going out, the second run was enough to win, for it had to be, and by luck it was.

Marion scored in the sixth, when Winters' error placed Luskey on second, McGuire's sacrifice sent him to third and when Farrell singled he scored the only run made by the callers in the second game. The score:

The Molders added another to their string of defeats by dropping the morning game, Labor Day, to the Marion crowd by the score of 3 to 1, in one of the fastest contests ever seen in the local ball yard. The game went just an hour and twenty minutes, and while fast, yet it was painfully uninteresting at times and the interest of the spectators lagged.

The local squad arrived Sunday night from Lima where they were handed three straight defeats, the one Sunday being the worst whalloping they have stacked up against this season. The Marion team came Monday morning after a hard trip from Portsmouth where they lost the majority of their games to the Shoemakers, and for this reason both teams were out for blood.

The playing, however, proved to be anything but brisk, and some of the plays that were made thoroughly disgusted the fans. Both games were marred by the work of Umpire Hart, who handed out poor decisions in the most impartial manner. The day was a pleasant one for base ball, and at both the morning and the afternoon session the attendance was good, although not up to last year.

Boh Moore and Webb pitched good ball and each had nine strikeouts to their credit although Webb escaped the heavy hitting that Moore drew in the first of the series. Neither twirler walked a man and in critical places both were effective. Gygil never played better ball than he did in both games, and several seemingly impossible chances were pulled in by him.

For the Marion squad Wolfe played a remarkable game at short, and during the nine frames he handled nine chances without an error. He did nothing with the stick however, but his fast fielding was clever though some of the chances were hard ones.

FIRST GAME.
The Eells delegation started off with a vim, and it looked as though they would put the contest in their coffers and clump the lid on it, for in the second inning they rushed Gygil, who connected for two bags, across the plate with lightning speed. Smith was the one that turned the trick, and he did it with a slow grinder, that rolled in a tantalizing manner around the feet of the infielders who tried to pick it up, and before they did get their hands on the globe to hold it, Smith was standing smiling on first.

He worked around to third on Wratten's hit, but in trying to make the home sack he was thrown out by Wolfe when the ball was thrown to him by Luskey in the attempt to get Wratten who was pilfering the second sack. Winters fled out to Farrell, and Williams was safe on Tate's error, although the misplay proved costly for Wratten for he was thrown out at home in trying to take advantage of it.

LaRue made the first count for the Diggers when he reached on a hit. Luskey, meanwhile outwaded, was there with the wand, and he reached one that landed him on third and sent LaRue home. When Williams let one get past him, the crowd set up a groan, to which accompaniment Luskey trotted home.

The Diggers counted again in the sixth when O'Day leaped against one that Smith entirely misjudged and the ball passed high over his head to take a resounding whack against the boards of the deep center fence. Smith shoved on the speed lever and tried to relay the ball into the plate, but his misjudgment was costly and O'Day circled the bases. The score:

AFTERNOON GAME.
The afternoon game went through the frames in just five minutes less time than the first game did, and the crowd saw some good ball, though at the same time they saw some that was decidedly pink in hue, and showed lack of head work on the part of the Molders. Their misplays were not costly enough to lose the game, and the interest in the game was not entirely lost.

The one error of the day made by the Molders happened in the second section of the sport when Winters dropped Luskey's fly in the sixth inning. Through the falling of the sphere from Winters' hands the Diggers were enabled to get the one run across that prevented Webb handing them a shutout. Luskey worked hard to this end, but was forced to be satisfied with pitching a nice game and opposed to him on the mound was "Scratch" McGuire, who claims he is a descendant of some old king that once ruled Germany, or rather Ireland. "Scratch" got away from the tape in bad shape, but later he settled down in the harness and when he came under the wire he was traveling at a good gait. He didn't seem to have much other than a good disposition, but he did manage to strike out four Newark batsmen. He was also hit hard, but by more luck than good management he kept the drives and the bingles were separated, and only two runs were gathered from his delivery.

Farrell was the bright shining light in the outfield and five hard chances were hauled in by him, to the tunes of "I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark," and some other selections that were dished up by a band in Idlewild park, engaged for the "doings" over there in "Cap" Hayes' domain.

CIGAR MAKERS TURN LAST GAME OF SERIES INTO A SWAT- FEST.

Newark Plays Weird Ball and Is Defeated 17 to 5—Quailley and Eells Easy Picking.

(By W. P. Melly.)
Lima, Sept. 8.—"Somebody burry up and get out," was the popular remark handed by the fans in the final contest with Newark yesterday afternoon, which lasted only seven and a half innings, during which time the Cigarmakers piled up a total of 20 hits and 17 runs. Tom Quailley, the former Lima pitcher started to work in the opening of the game, but was knocked out of the box in the third inning, and Manager Eells took his place, only to be treated in the same manner. The game was called to allow the teams to catch a train, or it would have been worse yet. It was so bad that even the local players lost interest, but the fans were game and stayed until the finish.

In the first inning Alex Reilley made a sensational running catch of a long fly along the foul line knicked by Pinkney, the first man up. Reilley added to his glory with his record at bat, securing four runs and four hits out of five times up, as well as four stolen bases, he and Jackson executing a double steal in the fifth inning.

Smith Gobbles Up Six Chances in the Middle Garden—Infield Foul Very Well.

(By W. P. Melly.)
Lima, Sept. 8.—Everything broke nicely for the locals in Saturday's contest with the Molders, Captain Jackson and his men landing 0, Kaler and seven singles and three batters. The big fellow had a world of speed and good curves, but when the Lima hitters connected with his delivery, his speed only aided them in driving the leather to good advantage. Links worked for the locals and pitched a steady, consistent game, allowing but three hits, passing three and striking out six. A feature of the game was Link's single in the second with two men on bases, the hit pitcher getting two hits out of three times up.

Catch of the Season Made at St. Lon

"LOWER SEM" WILL SOON BE A THING OF THE PAST

Famous Old Female College at Granville is Being Wrecked and Hauled Away by Present Owners

Was Built in 1826 and Was the Oldest College for Women in the Northwest Territory---Later Used by Methodists as Home for Aged.

Granville, O., Sept. 8.—The old historical building for so many years known as the Granville Female College, some times called the "lower sem," but for a number of years past used by the Methodists of Ohio as the Home for the Aged, will soon be no more. The building, which is owned by Mr. J. S. Jones and Mr. H. E. Thomas, is being taken down by a gang of men, under the direction of Mr. Thomas. Mr. Jones, who is the owner of two-thirds of the property, will remove a portion of the material to his farm just east of the village, and will put up several buildings. He will remove the remainder to his coal mines. Mr. Thomas will use his one-third of the material in building a house in Granville. The brick building, erected a few years ago, will not be torn down at present, and may be put in repair for further use.

Granville Female College was established in 1826, and it was, therefore, the oldest college for women in the northwest territory, when it was discontinued. Prominent members of the Granville colony were instrumental in establishing this college, which first went by the name of Granville Academy. When this institution was first established it was opened for both male and female students. The family department was conducted on the domestic labor plan, the same plan upon which Denison University started out. That class of institutions was popular in those days, the idea being that a person of either sex should be taught the various branches of labor necessary for them to understand in the battle of life, and those unable to pay their full tuition fee were thus enabled to earn part of it, and thereby were placed on an equal footing in educational advantages, with their wealthier classmates. The female department of this school was under the charge of Miss Marianne Howe in 1827; in 1828 under Miss Emma Lit. tie, and from 1830 to 1834 under the charge respectively of Miss Boardman, Miss Eels and Miss Eliza Foster. In 1834 Miss Nancy Bridges and Miss Elizabeth Grant were teachers. Miss Bridges became principal in 1836, and remained such, with her corps of teachers, until 1841.

During the first eight or nine years of the early history of this school its managers were compelled to rent school rooms and buildings for their pupils wherever they could get them; and thus it was that the school was kept in various parts of the town. It was not until 1836 that they were enabled to purchase six lots where the buildings have stood for so many years, of Grove Case, and in 1837, the main building, frame, known as the Granville Female College, was erected. March 14 the school was incorporated by the legislature, section first reading as follows:

"Be it enacted by the general assembly of the State of Ohio. That there shall be, and is hereby established, in the town of Granville, in the county of Licking, an institution for the learning of youth in the various branches of useful knowledge, by the name of 'Granville Academy,' and that Rev. Jacob Little, Samuel Bancroft, Spencer Wright, Knowles Linnell, Leonard Bushnell, William Smedley, Timothy K. Rose, Henry G. Bancroft, Ebenezer Crawford, Edwin C. Wright and William Bancroft, and their successors, be, and they are hereby, appointed, trustees of said institution, and made a body corporate and politic, with perpetual succession, to be known by the name and style of 'Trustees of Granville Academy.'"

Other sections followed, but space cannot be allowed for them. These trustees held their first meeting May 26, 1836, and organized by electing Rev. Jacob Little, president; W. W. Bancroft, secretary, and Samuel Bancroft, treasurer.

Board, in those days, could be had for 87½ cents per week, and the tuition was $425 per quarter.

Upon the expiration of Miss Bridges' term as principal in 1841, Mr. H. R. Gilmore was elected and served one year. August 4, 1842, Miss Hannah O. Bailey was elected principal, assisted by Miss Hamlin.

The domestic labor system for students did not work according to the expectations of its friends, and in this institution it was accordingly abandoned February 9, 1844.

February 2, 1845, William D. Moore rented the academy buildings for three and a half years, at the end of which time he re-rented and continued principal of the school until 1854.

May 9, of 1854, a contract was made with William P. Kerr, who for many years was its faithful and efficient principal and manager.

Very early in its history the school was merged into female academy. Its projectors determined that it should become a first-class college for the higher education of women. One of its laws required that every teacher should become a consistent Christian, the great purpose of its founders being to advance religion. It was established on the Mt. Holyoke system, and so continued until 1845, when, under Mr. Moore, it was conducted on the boarding house system, and was so conducted up to a few years ago when it was closed.

In 1864-5 a handsome brick building was added to the institution, which was mainly occupied by the gymnasium, in charge of an efficient teacher, a chapel and recitation room. Every provision seems to have been made for the health and comfort of all that goes to make up the sum of human happiness, and it was probably one of the most complete and thoroughly equipped institutions in the country for the purpose for which it was designed. During the last three years of the life of the institution which closed in 1899, Miss Clark Sheldon was the efficient principal, the faculty being as follows: Miss Clara Stinnett and Miss Andrews, music.

Miss Houghton, modern languages and mathematics.

Miss Sheldon, Christian evidences and English literature.

Miss DeGroat, physics and chemistry.

Miss Minnie Jones, art.

Miss Fannie Mairs, physical culture.

The old Granville Female College has given by her graduates, to American and foreign missionary work, about one hundred and twenty years of service.

For a number of years the buildings have been occupied and known as the Methodist Home for the Aged, and only recently were they abandoned for this purpose, the home being removed to Cincinnati, upon the completion of the handsome new building there.

UTICA FACTORIES READY FOR WORK

Utica, Sept. 8.—The Utica Glass Co. has put fires into the tank and expects to begin turning out window glass on the 14th of this month. The Central is pushing its repairs but has not set the date for its starting, it having run several weeks later than the Utica. Seraphine Lempereur is the manager for the coming fire. The glass selling will be looked after by Bookkeeper Roberts. The directors of the Licking company have not yet met and chosen a manager for the next fire, some members of the board being absent on their vacation outings.

Jake Winters was an enigma throughout when his meant runs, and only his anxiety with men on bases was what caused him to be hit so freely, as he would get in the hole and have to lob them over. He, however, struck out 16 batters. "Pidge" Ferrel of the locals made a remarkable catch that saved the game for his side in the tenth. Score:

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

During the past two weeks the gymnasium and baths have been overhauled, painted, tinted, cleaned and re-arranged, and will be like new for the season's run. The house committee have authorized the closing of the building for a few days for the purpose of a thorough cleaning and repairing of the portion in constant use. The walls and ceiling will be tinted, the floors, woodwork and equipment put in first-class trim and the week of September 15 will be used as a special opening week. A great program of exercises both in Taylor hall and in the gymnasium will be arranged. The building will close Tuesday, September 8, and will open Tuesday, September 15.

The Interurbans of Columbus and the Hermanns of this city went for 14 innings here Sunday in a game filled with sensational plays and hard hitting. Nel Mason was in good form, but the very bad support he received caused him to fail in the matter of winning.

Dust Means Sickness

The most striking revelation made by the study of germs is the fact that circulating dust is invariably laden with the germs of disease. It is as important to avoid dust as it is to destroy germs. The only safe way to purchase coffee is by Climax in sealed dust-proof packages.

Would That Make Good Coffee?

There is about a day's accumulation of dust upon your parlor table. How much more dust does bulk coffee come in contact with before you buy it?

Roasted coffee is stripped of the outer hull and inner skin, and the pores of the berry, thus left open, absorb all the dust and odors going. Dust and germs are not conducive to good health. Why not buy in the cleanly way, in sealed packages?

CLIMAX PACKAGE COFFEE

(Never Sold in Bulk)

Is Equal in Original Quality to any Coffee Sold in Bulk at 30c and is Absolutely Clean.

It is roasted with the most scrupulous cleanliness and packed in air-tight, dust-proof sealed packages.

NEXT TRIP TO NEW MEXICO ON TUESDAY SEPT. 15

If you believe that a good real estate investment is worth your consideration, please read this advertisement. If you prefer to buy stocks or bonds or to spend your money for pleasure, read it anyway. It will do you no harm.

I have just returned from New Mexico, with a party of Ohioans who went to the great southwest to look over the ground. A few of them didn't buy, but the majority did, and they are well satisfied. I have brought back a lot of samples of the oats, corn, wheat, potatoes etc., all raised on the mesa without irrigation, and these specimens may be seen at my office, 71 1-2 East Main street, Newark, Ohio. Here also may be seen numerous photographs of crops, cattle, farms and towns and full information about the country will be gladly given to all who inquire.

My proposition is a simple one as follows: The next excursion will leave Newark Tuesday, September 15, via R. & O. We change cars at Chicago and make no other change till we get off the train at Las Vegas, N. M. I will pay the car fare for the round trip ($11.25) to all who buy land and nobody will be urged to buy. I will take you to New Mexico and show you the best land proposition on earth. Your judgment will tell you whether to buy or not. The land is cheap, but prices are advancing. The crops are abundant, the country is fast filling up and those who buy at present prices are bound to make some money. Will be glad to talk it over with you.

JOHN TUCKER,
71 1-2 East Main st., Newark, O.

THE WOMEN'S CLUB AT PINCHTOWN.

It was a social function of great magnitude they say, all Pinchtown's fairest dames and maids were there in toilettes gay: 'twas in the old town they met to hear a famous speaker—a lady known in every land—one Miss Priscilla Bleeker. A student and a teacher of economics was she, imparting latest tricks to lighten household drudgery, and of the many plans advised the one that seemed most good, was this: "Use Spartan Stain, 'twill save much scrubbing of the wood." If you would save yourself the drudgery of scrubbing floors and woodwork use Spartan Stain. It gives a beautiful gloss finish to the wood and is easily kept clean.
